

Pete Kennedy

Subject: FW: eUpdate

national CHILD
PROTECTION WEEK
September 2-8, 2007
Take the child friendly challenge

National Child Protection Week Starts on Sunday!

If you have not registered your event please REGISTER your event today.

Events

NAPCAN's National Launch

NCPW will be officially launched by Justice Sally Thomas AM at NAPCAN NT's Annual Breakfast on Monday Sept 3rd at the Trailer Boat Club, Darwin.

Master of ceremonies is NT's own Charlie King, and guest speakers are NAPCAN Ambassador Chris Sarra, and celebrated children's author Leonie Norrington.

States and Territories are holding local events, and NAPCAN will officially launch the 2007-2008 Child Friendly Challenge: Make your street child friendly! at the Fatherhood Festival in Bangalow NSW on Father's Day, MORE

Check out all the registered events in your state or territory for NCPW 07 HERE

Child Friendly Champions

Through Child Friendly Australia NAPCAN is honouring ordinary people who are making an extraordinary contribution to children's wellbeing.

We hope that NAPCAN's recognition of them will help inspire other Australians to take responsibility not only for their own children, but for all children in their community. So if you know someone you consider has made an exceptional difference to children and young people, email us HERE with a brief story about their contribution. We are considering all nominations over the next few weeks.

Help us Capture the Stories and photos of child friendly streets around the country. Email us HERE

National Child Protection Week Bloggers!

Please Aussie and international bloggers,

Won't you consider joining the bloggers relay for child protection week.

In Australia, a child is harmed every 11 minutes. Child abuse is our biggest social problem. One week every September is put aside to celebrate and encourage child protection. I give a blog about kids will you?

To participate in the relay and demonstrate that you give a blog about kids, please find the very simple instructions at:

Child Protection Week 2007. Bloggers relay we care by giving a blog

The benefits to our global children knowing that there is a cyber support network are huge. The individual and immediate benefits to you in joining this relay are that you will pick up new readership and publicly display your commitment to a resource in dire need of more sustainability than the blogosphere.

Imaginif...child protection became serious business

The largest online child protection conversation in the world.
Blogs, forums, protective play shop.
Join the imaginif conversation
www.imaginif.com.au

Get involved in National Child Protection Week and help build a child friendly Australia!