Child Protection Advocacy is a not for profit community service, founded in South Australia, that acts as an independent voice for children, parents and their caregivers involved in the Child Protection System. Child Protection Advocacy works with around 15 to 20 families every week who have had their children removed. The work CPA does is currently done entirely on a voluntary basis and clients are not charged. Every day CPA receive phone calls around Australia seeking assistance from parents who are trapped in the Child

All funds raised will be used to support the advocacy work we do.

We have been fortunate enough to secure sponsorship from 2 major companies

Bunnings Warehouses have been kind enough to donate pots, plants and soil for the children to plant and take home.

A gold coin donation would be much appreciated.

Spotlight have been kind enough to donate paints for the children to use to decorate the plant pots donated by Bunnings Warehouses.

A gold coin donation would be much appreciated.

But that this not all there will be. We will also have:

Something to eat

And something to drink
