

Children thrive when we all understand our role in keeping them safe

CELEBRATE
CHILDREN'S WEEK
19-27 OCTOBER 2019

FREE WORKSHOP FOR PEOPLE WORKING WITH CHILDREN

Making your organisation safe for children and young people

Alice Springs

9am - 3pm, Friday 18 October 2019

- Perfect for early childhood educators, teachers, health workers, churches, sports clubs, social workers, counsellors, volunteers, and businesses who engage with families
- Rare opportunity for FREE professional development
- Update your CV and receive a certificate

All children have the right to be safe and to feel safe all of the time. This means that every member of an organisation needs to understand their role in proactively keeping children safe, helping them thrive and preventing child abuse and neglect.

This interactive workshop covers:

- Background of child safe organisation development
- Establishing and maintaining a child safe culture
- Child inclusive practice
- How to create child safe and friendly environments
- Key elements of a child safe organisation

Quotes from participants...

- "I now have a much better understanding of how to provide safe environments for children."
- "I enjoyed being challenged on how safe my organisation really is and how it can be improved."
- "I learnt about the importance of children's voices in the development of policies and involvement in decision making."
